

On 13th-17th November 2017, The Skill Evaluation System Promotion Program (SESPP) which is planned and implemented from Ministry of Health, Labor and Welfare, it was held in the "Automotive Human Resource Development Academy" (AHRDA) located in Samut Prakan Province, (30 km east of Bangkok city) in Thailand.

This project cooperates focused in ASEAN countries in order to promote the dissemination of the skill test system of developing countries. In this year, mainly "PLC sequence control Level 2" training courses for Assessor was held cooperation with JICA experts in AHRDA.

Therefore, three elements of establishment from JICA experts; Formulation of examination task, maintenance activities of test equipment and training of Assessor were achieved. This effort with JICA will be accelerated "National Skills Testing Sequence Control Level 2" within this year.

It expected that the National Trade Skill Testing & Certification will became even more secure in future to deal with Japanese companies as the activities of notification of examination, conduct public relations activities and ask worker to apply for the examination.

The PLC committee, a technical competence examination execution committee was also held at AHRDA and they watched intently trial of the National Trade Skill Testing & Certification.

Opening ceremony/ Congratulation speech from the director

Assessor/Inspection equipment before the examination

Trial examination

Observation of examination

Review of Test result from Assessor

PLC Committee